Corrective Actions Made Easy

EHS managers face an exhausting list of compliance tasks that require quick and decisive action. Assigning, tracking, and documenting corrective actions is a difficult and time-consuming job, especially if your organization is committed to industry standards like ISO 9001, 14001, 45001 and OHSAS 18001, all of which have substantial corrective and preventative action requirements.

VelocityEHS Corrective Actions makes it easy to mobilize your workforce to help prevent incidents and perform compliance tasks with greater speed and efficiency. Our solution ensures your people are on task, that corrective actions are completed on time, and improves transparency of EHS compliance throughout your organization.

The need for corrective actions can arise from almost any EHS activity. That's why VelocityEHS Corrective Actions is not only available as a standalone EHS product, but is also integrated into our Incident Management, Audit & Inspection, Compliance Management, Management of Change, Safety Meetings, Training Management and Risk Analysis products. Now you can manage all of your corrective actions in one place.

Don't Make the Same Mistake Twice

When incidents occur or when audits and inspections reveal non-compliance, it's important to remember that they're not just problems to be fixed, but opportunities to eliminate EHS risks. The challenge is following through with your corrective action items to ensure that issues are effectively resolved.

Making the same mistake twice is what agencies like OSHA, HSE and Health Canada call 'repeated violations' and 'failure to abate'. Don't let an inability to act result in fines and penalties that could have been avoided.

VelocityEHS helps eliminate risks by quickly implementing corrective actions to ensure compliance with your organization's EHS & sustainability requirements. Our solution enables you to centralize the assignment, tracking and verification of corrective actions to help you capitalize on opportunities for greater EHS performance.
